For 4 weeks only, Lowestoft's old Poundstretcher building transforms into an exciting pop-up contemporary art gallery, with a fantastic exhibition of paintings, drawings, prints collagraphs, ceramics, wall-hangings in wood sculpture and other creative work, presented by local artists group, Easterly Artists.

Part of the town's annual Heritage Open Day celebrations and featuring new works by some of the most dynamic and innovative artists in the area, this new, one-off exhibition is a "must-see" for anyone interested in the arts in general and Lowestoft's cultural heritage in particular. And entry is FREE!

Don't forget: The exhibition only runs for 4 weeks so check your diary NOW!

See front of leaflet for opening dates & times.

Easterly Artists

Easterly Artists formed in 2018 as a mutually supportive group, to promote the practice of local visual artists and encourage awareness and appreciation of their work.

Members are all practising artists living and/or working within a 20-mile radius of Ness Point, the most easterly part of the UK.
